Product Code: SCHP-DEMO-26

Policy Number: DEMO/HC/2026/004871

Policyholder: SAMPLE POLICYHOLDER

Insured Members: 2 adults and 1 child

Policy Period: 01 April 2026 to 31 March 2027

Sum Insured: Rs. 10,00,000

Policy Status: Active

1. DEFINITIONS

Hospital means an institution established for indoor treatment and day-care treatment of illness and injury. Pre-Existing Disease means any condition, ailment, injury or disease diagnosed or treated within the specified period before the commencement of the policy. Day Care Treatment means a medical treatment or surgical procedure completed within a period of less than 24 hours because of technological advancement.

2. BASE HOSPITALIZATION COVER

Subject to the terms of this policy, the insurer will indemnify reasonable and medically necessary hospitalization expenses incurred for an admissible illness or injury. Covered expenses may include room charges, nursing expenses, intensive care unit charges, surgeon fees, physician fees, operation theatre charges, medicines, diagnostics and eligible pre- and post-hospitalization expenses.

Coverage Limits and Sub-Limits

3. ROOM RENT AND NURSING EXPENSES

Room rent is payable up to 1 percent of the Sum Insured per day, subject to a maximum of Rs. 5,000 per day. For ICU accommodation, expenses are payable up to 2 percent of the Sum Insured per day, subject to a maximum of Rs. 10,000 per day.

If the insured person occupies a room whose eligible rent exceeds the applicable room-rent limit, the insurer may apply proportionate deduction to associated hospitalization expenses in accordance with the policy terms.

4. SPECIFIC TREATMENT SUB-LIMITS

Cataract surgery is subject to a maximum benefit of Rs. 40,000 per eye per policy year. Treatment for piles, fissure and fistula is subject to a maximum of Rs. 30,000 per hospitalization. Hernia treatment is subject to a maximum of Rs. 50,000 per policy year. These sub-limits apply even when the overall Sum Insured remains available.

5. AMBULANCE EXPENSES

Road ambulance expenses are payable up to Rs. 5,000 per hospitalization, provided the transportation is medically necessary and supported by valid documentation. Air ambulance expenses are not covered under the base policy unless specifically added by endorsement.

Waiting Periods and Pre-Existing Diseases

6. INITIAL WAITING PERIOD

Expenses for illness occurring during the first 30 days from the commencement date are not payable, except where treatment is required because of an accidental injury.

7. PRE-EXISTING DISEASE WAITING PERIOD

Expenses related to Pre-Existing Diseases are not payable during the first 36 months from the commencement of continuous coverage. This waiting period may be reduced where a specific endorsement or portability credit is recorded in the policy schedule.

For a disease that is neither disclosed nor accepted by the insurer at proposal stage, the insurer may investigate the medical history and determine admissibility in accordance with the policy terms.

8. SPECIFIED DISEASE WAITING PERIOD

Certain listed treatments and conditions are subject to a waiting period of 24 months. The specified conditions include selected hernia procedures, joint replacement procedures, benign prostatic hypertrophy, and treatment of non-infective arthritis, unless caused by an accident.

Co-Payment, Deductibles and Exclusions

9. CO-PAYMENT

A co-payment of 20 percent applies to admissible claims for insured members aged 61 years or above. The co-payment is calculated on the admissible claim amount after application of applicable sub-limits and deductibles.

10. DEDUCTIBLE

The optional annual deductible selected at proposal stage will be deducted from the first admissible claims during each policy year. The deductible amount recorded in the schedule is Rs. 25,000.

11. GENERAL EXCLUSIONS

The following are not covered unless specifically included by endorsement: cosmetic or plastic surgery except when medically necessary following an accident; treatment for self-inflicted injury; treatment arising from participation in hazardous activities; expenses for non-prescribed vitamins or supplements; and experimental or unproven treatment.

12. NON-MEDICAL EXPENSES

Items such as registration charges, documentation charges, toiletries, visitor meals, personal convenience items and certain consumables may not be payable. The insurer may apply the applicable non-medical expense list when processing a claim.

Maternity, Day Care and Pre/Post-Hospitalization

13. MATERNITY BENEFIT

Maternity expenses are covered only after completion of a waiting period of 24 months and subject to a maximum benefit of Rs. 75,000 for normal delivery and Rs. 1,00,000 for caesarean delivery. The benefit is available for up to two deliveries during the insured member's lifetime, subject to policy terms.

14. NEWBORN COVER

A newborn child may be covered from birth subject to the maternity benefit conditions and timely declaration to the insurer. Congenital conditions may be subject to the exclusions and conditions stated in the schedule.

15. DAY CARE PROCEDURES

The policy covers listed day-care procedures that require medical treatment or surgery and are completed within 24 hours due to technological advancement. The procedure must be performed at an eligible hospital or day-care centre.

16. PRE AND POST-HOSPITALIZATION

Eligible medical expenses incurred up to 60 days before hospitalization and 90 days after discharge may be reimbursed when they relate directly to the covered hospitalization, subject to policy limits.

SECURECARE HEALTH PLUS

Cashless Claims and Reimbursement

17. CASHLESS FACILITY

Cashless treatment is available at network hospitals subject to pre-authorization by the insurer or its claims administrator. Cashless approval does not by itself constitute final claim acceptance.

18. PLANNED HOSPITALIZATION

For planned hospitalization, the policyholder should request cashless authorization at least 48 hours before admission. The request should contain the proposed treatment, estimated expenses, diagnosis and supporting medical documents.

19. EMERGENCY HOSPITALIZATION

In an emergency, the policyholder or hospital should notify the insurer as soon as reasonably possible. Failure to provide timely notice may affect claim processing where the delay prevents reasonable verification of the claim.

20. REIMBURSEMENT CLAIMS

For reimbursement, the policyholder must submit the claim form, original bills, discharge summary, prescriptions, investigation reports and other documents reasonably requested by the insurer. The insurer may request additional documents when necessary to assess admissibility.

Renewal, Cancellation and Portability

21. RENEWAL

The policy may be renewed subject to the terms and conditions applicable at renewal. Renewal premium may change based on approved pricing, age, product revision or other factors permitted by applicable regulations.

22. CANCELLATION

The policyholder may request cancellation in accordance with the cancellation terms. Any refund, where applicable, will be calculated after considering the elapsed policy period, claims paid and other applicable conditions.

23. PORTABILITY

A policyholder may request portability to another health insurance product in accordance with applicable regulatory requirements and timelines. Continuity credits for waiting periods may be transferred to the extent permitted by the applicable rules.

24. FREE-LOOK PERIOD

Where applicable, a free-look period may allow the policyholder to review the policy terms and return the policy within the prescribed period, subject to the applicable conditions and deductions.

SECURECARE HEALTH PLUS

Grievance Redressal and Important Disclosures

25. GRIEVANCE REDRESSAL

A policyholder who has a complaint may first contact the insurer's grievance redressal officer through the channels listed in the policy schedule. If the complaint is not resolved within the applicable period, the policyholder may use the available external grievance or ombudsman mechanisms as permitted by applicable regulations.

26. IMPORTANT DISCLOSURE

Coverage under this policy is subject to the policy schedule, wording, endorsements, exclusions, waiting periods, sub-limits and other conditions. Marketing material or an illustration should not be treated as a substitute for the complete policy wording.

27. DOCUMENT CHECKLIST

Before relying on a benefit, check: the Sum Insured; room-rent limit; ICU limit; disease-specific sub-limits; waiting periods; co-payment; deductible; exclusions; network-hospital conditions; claim notification requirements; and any endorsements recorded in the policy schedule.

28. SYNTHETIC DATA NOTICE

This entire document is synthetic and was created solely for OCR, document ingestion, clause extraction, red-flag detection, RAG and summary testing. It is not issued by an insurer and must not be used to make a real insurance or financial decision.
